Work Experience

GOAT USA I Graphic Design Intern Plainview, New York January - May 2023

I worked as a design intern at this Long Island based lifestyle and apparel company. GOAT USA has a large web presence as well as having its clothing lines featured in franchise stores like Dick's Sporting Goods. In this capacity I worked closely with the art director on numerous projects that included graphics for use on clothing, custom designs for clients that were used stickers and apparel, as well as creating layouts for large scale email campaigns. I was also responsible for formatting and prepping files so that they download efficiently and accurately on their website. I have attended meetings with the President of the company to discuss their longterm and short term advertising campaigns.

Freelance Graphic Designer 2019 - Current

Over the past four years I have worked as a part-time freelance designer. Some of the projects I worked on included updating the logo and business cards for a local landscaping business. In addition I have made several custom illustrations for digital and print purposes such as posters and apparel. I work closely with clients to help meet their expectations and specifications.

Ryann's Wines I Merchandiser East Meadow, New York December 2018-Current

Over the last five years I have been asked to take on numerous responsibilities including communicating and helping customers, working with co-workers, packing out boxes onto sales floor and operating the cash register. I have consistently received high marks on my performance evaluations and have gone out of my way to ensure that the store-front looks pristine.
